

Customer

Customers add items to the shopping cart through the terminal.

Items can be electronics, clothing, or grocery items.

A driver handles the input and parses instructions.

